Welcome to Rockingham County and your destination for specialty shopping. Our unique shopping venues are woven together by one common thread: they're not your typical chain stores, malls or outlet centers.

the shopping experience

Shopping in Rockingham County is a collector's haven. If you collect it, we have it. You'll find that our shops are filled with a plethora of extraordinary items, including choice fashions and apparel, exquisite rugs, magnificent home furnishings, stunning crystal, rare antiques and original works of art.

Many of the items found in our stores are locally made either here in Rockingham County or in North Carolina. And to top it all off, most of our shops offer an escape from the ordinary with their quaint, nostalgic settings.

So, you're invited to take a look into our treasure chest and see what gems you can discover.

Eden

Eden's shopping specialty is home and personal fashions. For the home, you'll find superb carpet, beautiful Persian rugs, crystal chandeliers, quality furniture and other home furnishings. One of Eden's finest jewels is Karastan®, which has been making some of the world's most beautiful carpet and rugs here for 75 years. Nowhere else can you find Karastan retailers who are so close to their product—the mill is just down the street.

Personal fashions can be found in the city's many boutique shops. Our apparel stores offer men's, women's and children's clothing and accessories at competitive prices.

Eden has three distinct downtown shopping areas, the Boulevard, Draper Village and Olde Leaksville, that provide old-fashioned shopping. The districts also host a number of special events each year.

Madison & Mayodan

Shopping in Madison and Mayodan is like stepping back in time. The area offers a bit of nostalgia along with the charm and friendliness one would expect from small, southern towns. The historic downtown area in Madison features many renovated buildings that remind us of days gone by.

Shopping in Mayodan features a number of specialty stores where you'll find apparel, arts, crafts and gifts.

In Madison, you can visit an old timey general store where they still sell candy out of barrels and fresh produce. Here you will also find a traditional hardware store, an art boutique, antique and collectible shops, a classic toy store, a brand name apparel outlet, a country store, a museum and much more. Some of the stores even make their products right on site.

Merchants in Madison team up throughout the year to host special events for the community in the downtown area.

Reidsville

Reidsville is best known for its abundance of antique shops. The Downtown and Antique Alley district in Reidsville boasts a number of antique shops that rivals most found in big cities. Each shop has a specialty ranging from baskets, furniture, carpet, silver, china, books, dolls and art. In addition to the shops, the Reidsville antique district also has several antique malls. Reidsville's downtown is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Each year the city hosts special events and festivals in the downtown area, including the Downtown and Antique Alley Street Festival that highlights the antique district.

There are also a number of art stores located throughout Reidsville that sell the works of many local artists and craftsmen. The city even features a couple of art studios.
